

ABOUT US

We encourage survivors to gather, remember and speak aloud the precious names of those lost to suicide.

You are in a safe place with those who understand.

If you are very new to the tragedy of suicide loss, despair may be your companion. We hope you find comfort with us on the grief journey.

OUR MISSION

- Provide a place to share and vent feelings.
- Create a safe environment for many who can't talk to others about suicide.
- Promote the normal grief process and help with unique feelings arising from suicide loss.
- Serve as a possible deterrent by informing others of the effect suicide has on survivors.
- Inform others of the unique needs of survivors.
- Share with us...and let us share with you.
